Reflection

On a separate piece of paper reflect on your experience. (The more hours you worked, the longer this section will be.) Some ideas for reflection include:

- What was the nature of the work?
- Why was the work needed?
- What new skills did you learn?
- What did you notice about the world that you did not know before?
- Was the work interesting or monotonous? Why? How did this work compare with other work you have done?
- Was anyone appreciative of your help? How does appreciation or lack of appreciation affect your motivation to help ?
- Why is this work important? How does your perception of the importance affect your attitude and/or motivation to do this work?
- What did you notice about yourself as a worker? (hard worker, shy at first but then outgoing, leader, follower... etc.)
- How have you changed as a result of this work?
