

To TSA 9th Graders and 10th Graders, a note from Humanities Teacher, Charlie McMeekin:

Reading is a habit we want to strongly support at TSA, and it doesn't end when the school year does! Your summer reading work has several parts:

1) Read one of the books the school is requiring for summer reading. The list of eligible books (that you should have already chosen from) and further details can be found by clicking here:

TSA HS Summer Reading List

2) Read a second book. Your choice! Motivated students/readers will choose something that challenges them, either by expanding their world view or strengthening their reading skills. However, no book will be rejected if it's written for young adults or older. If you have any questions or fears about your choice, feel free to e-mail me at cmcmeekin@sharonacademy.net.

Then, create a poster about this second book which will be hung in my classroom! It should "sell" your book, perhaps by using a quote or two from the book, images, color, and design. This poster will be due on the first day we have actual class. It will be worth 100 points, which is roughly equivalent to a test grade. The poster will be scored for neatness and quality of "selling" job.
