- ❖ The Bill of Rights Handbook project has been broken down into eighteen sections, as outlined by your criteria sheet. In order to stay on track, you should complete some of these each day.
- ❖ You will have a total of 6 in-class work days to work on this project. This shows that my expectations for the project are high.
- ❖ Be aware that you will still have to complete much of this assignment at home to get it done in the allotted period of time.
- ❖ Each illustration you do should be completed with quality, and all of your paragraphs must be checked for spelling and grammar mistakes. Take your time, and be careful not to waste class time talking to your neighbor during class. Do not put unedited writing into the final copy of the book!!!!
- ❖ You may complete the Cartoon Handbook in any order you like, but in order to keep everyone on track, you will earn class participation grades for keeping to the following schedule. Each deadline will be worth 5 points.

Timeline

- ✓ You will have work periods this Tuesday, Wed., & Thursday.
 - When you leave on Thursday (11/2), nine pages are due.
- ✓ We will have Current Events on Friday (11/3)
- ✓ You should plan on 30 min. – 1 hour of work over the weekend so you are ready for the following due dates:
 - By Monday 11/6, three more are due (twelve total).
 - By Tuesday 11/7, two more are due (fourteen total).
 - By Wednesday 11/8, two more are due (sixteen total).
 - By Thursday 11/9 the entire project is due. (All eighteen pieces should be finished.)

Homework assignment Due Date	Total Parts Due by this day	Student Check	Possible score	Grade recorded by Fallon. If it is late, it will be a zero.
Thursday 11/2	9		5 Points
Monday 11/6	12		5 Points
Tuesday 11/7	14		5 Points
Wednesday 11/8	16		5 Points
Thursday 11/9	18		5 Points

- ❖ To keep track of when you have completed each section, you will show Fallon the completed section, and she will sign off that it is done with the expected quality. The check-off for each section is on the back of this paper. To help you keep track of your due dates and participation grades, you should fill out the form below as we go.
